

Thin: paired patient 95% CI; thick: ± 1 training-seed SD. Fixed noises: phase 1 $n=6$; phase 2 $n=5$. Phases are not pooled. Positive differences favor electrode-structured tests. Small x offsets separate strategies at the same SNR.